WASHINGTON, D. C.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.
Alexandria, Va., June 6, 1908.
All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the law on the subject requires of $5 or $5.

JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH, 1908,

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that other pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and persons will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their license to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the law of the city, a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation shall declare that all such dogs as are licensed shall be kept curbed and muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes," and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed.

FREE. J. P. FAY, Mayor.

The following is a copy of Section 54 of the License Law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

THE VIRGINIA PLATFORM.

Following is the platform in full as adopted by the Virginia State democratic convention in Richmond, on Thursday night. The democratic party of Virginia in convention assembled, heartily indorses the administration of Governor Claude A. Swanson and the other State officers, and challenges the most searching scrutiny as to their fidelity and devotion to the pledges which were made by them. After twenty-three years of undisturbed supremacy in the State, the democratic party of Virginia refers the public to a consistent record of honesty, efficiency and progress in administration and legislation, and the present resulting conditions of good order, good feeling and general prosperity represented in our history.

The State has not only met her financial obligations punctually, but has anticipated them. Her credit is as good as that of any government in the world.
Her people, encouraged by stable conditions, moderate taxation fairly adjusted among all classes and wisely progressive leadership, give their attention more hopefully and earnestly than ever before to the development of our vast material resources and to the establishment of permanent general systems of good roads and public school.

The democratic party is proud of the fact that without increasing the burden on the tax-payers any money is being used for public school purposes than ever before in Virginia, and that the pensions to the survivors of Confederate armies have steadily increased as the revenue and necessaries of the State permit. In these policies, as in other forward movements, the people of Virginia will continue until they stand equal with the most prosperous and advanced of our sister commonwealths, and until the opportunity for efficient practical and cheap education is put within the reach of every child in the State.

To the promotion of these ends the democratic party of Virginia pledges itself, confident that the sagacity of the voters will forbid them from permitting any change from the political methods by which the State has prospered and advanced, enjoyed peace and won honor.

To the democrats of the union, soon to assemble in convention at Denver, the democracy of Virginia sends cordial greeting and assurance of Virginia's earnest support and electoral vote for the nominees for president and vice-president to be chosen there. We represent to them through our delegation the following resolutions, as expressing sentiments of the Virginia democracy, and respectfully ask consideration for them for inclusion in the party platform:

Resolved, by the democrats of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in convention assembled, that the republican party, which twelve years ago secured control of the federal government by the president's boast that it possessed the financial wisdom and conservatism of the country and by solemn promises to bring prosperity and to devise a safe and suitable currency system, having been in control of all branches of the government without interruption during twelve years, has proved that its boasts were false and has failed abjectly to fulfill its promises.

It has maintained a currency system which has forced on the country two disastrous panics within four years, in the face of conditions otherwise sound and wholesome, and has twice paralyzed our commerce. In its attempt to conciliate and further trick the substantial business interests universally demanding an improved and more elastic currency, and to hold the favor of the money monarchy it drove and juggled through in the last hours of the recent session of Congress a pitiful make-shift of currency legislation, absolutely useless, an in-vit to intelligence, an abortion born of confessed incompetence. The republican party, by its record on this great and urgent question, and by the commercial events of the last twelve years, is proved to be as incapable as it is cowardly, as false as it is slavish.

It has presented itself as a fit subject for punishment and overthrow at the hands of the deceived and betrayed business people, and of the masses whose confidence it begged and has grossly forfeited.

Resolved, That the republican party, while forced to heed the general demand from all classes for revision of the tariff, has skulked from this issue by postponement and subterfuge, thereby giving conclusive evidence that it will continue the system, which makes a few enormously rich at the cost of the great body of citizenship. It practically proclaims that it will go on holding before the American workingman the bait of nominally high

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing.
Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results.

JUNE IS THE LAST MONTH in which wages with a tariff arrangement and a currency system which period ally deprived him of employment, make erasing impossible for him and exhaust his small savings. Substantial growth and wealth cannot be maintained while enterprise is excited to fever one month and chilled to helplessness the next.

Powerful artificial stimulation must be followed by weakness. To restore hea-thy condition revision of the tariff is required. Revision of the tariff must be entrusted to the friends of revision, not to those whose acts prove them to be its unrelenting foes.

We favor revision of the tariff as the only remedy of the trust evil, and that it be so levied as not to discriminate against any industry, class or section.
We declare that the present tariff laws, enacted by the republican party, are in the interest of the few and against the good of the people, and in our opinion the tariff is and ought to be made most prominent, as it is the most vital issue in the pending campaign. We denounce the passage by the republican House of Representatives of what is known as the Crumpacker bill, the avowed and obvious purpose of which is to reduce the representation of the southern states of the union in the lower house of Congress and the electoral college. This attempt to revise dead and hateful race and sectional animosities in any part of our country is criminal, and means confusion and distrust on of business and return to an era in our history which was of incalculable harm to north and south, east and west.

Resolved, That we further denounce the executive usurpation of legislative and judicial functions, whether veiled under the guise of executive construction of existing laws or whether it takes refuge in the traditional tyrant's plea of necessity or superior wisdom.
We look upon the executive usurpation of the present republican administration as wild assaults upon the rights of States. These persistent encroachments against the right of the commonwealths constituting his republic, by the various branches of the Federal government as presented by republican methods, policies and practices, menace the foundations on which we are established.
They should be resented by every thoughtful American and rebuked and resisted at the polls by all who know that the real strength of the republic is the maintenance of the lines separating judicial and legislative functions, and in careful respect for the rights of the States, and the personal liberty of the individual. Sovereign stateshood and American manhood are wrapped together, dependent on each other.

We call to the democratic standard all who realize that in this country there can be no stability with power centralized, and whose distrust and patriotic resentment are aroused by the republican policy of degrading the States to provinces and concentrating authority and control at Washington.

Resolved, That the democratic party invokes the co-operation of all who long for the restoration of the land marks of the constitution and whose cool reason tells them that such restoration is necessary for our freedom and safety. None but a democratic administration can maintain the respect for our fundamental laws and principles which republican administrations have been and are reasonably obliterating, and which the constitution provides and which are required for the orderly conduct of the government and the protection of the people.

Resolved, That this convention in-dorses the principle of the nomination for office of the democratic party by primary election, open to the white democrats who are legal voters.

Resolved, That all resolutions regarding the primary be referred to the democratic State central committee, and that that body be, and hereby is, instructed to make such changes in the primary election plan as shall tend to cheapen the cost of candidacy, relating solely to the question of expense, to throw legal safeguards about primaries, and to provide that primary elections shall be held after full public notice not less than sixty nor more than ninety days before the ensuing regular election; and it is further authorized and instructed to put into effect such rules necessary to promote such results and to prepare and present at the next session of the legislature a bill to legalize and protect all primaries in every part of the State.

Resolved, further, That the State central committee be, and it is hereby, instructed to take up the party primary plan, and consider further protecting it and report their recommendations to the next State convention to be held in 1912
